

THE POSTAL HISTORY SOCIETY
in association with the Forces Postal History Society

MEETING AT LONDON
SATURDAY 8th DECEMBER

Following the success of previous years' joint meetings at the Union Jack Club at Waterloo in London, a similar meeting is being held in 2018. Members are invited to bring their displays of military or naval mail, British or foreign, especially commemorating the 100th anniversary of the ending of the First World War. From amongst the two societies a good range of topics is guaranteed.

We gather from around 1015 to commence at 1030, finishing between 1600 and 1630. Refreshments of tea, coffee and biscuits are provided.

There are several lunch options – U.J. Club restaurant for cooked meals; U.J. Club bar for sandwiches; or a good French wine bar across the road.

There will be a nominal charge for the meeting which will be collected on the day.

The Union Jack Club in Sandell Street is immediately opposite Waterloo railway station. For reasons of security (because of its military connections) you must bring your P.H.S. membership card or this notification of the meeting to gain access to the Club.

Please return this slip by 4th December if you are coming to the meeting so that we can notify U.J. Club of names of those attending - to
